WKXW - NJ 101.5 FM Trenton, NJ
3rd Quarter 2016
July 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016

Following this one-sheet, is the 3rd Quarter Issues and Programs Report for WKXW – NJ 101.5 FM:

It is our judgment on the most recent ascertainties, that these are some of the most frequently mentioned community issues and concerns:

1. During the 3rd Quarter of 2016, WKXW (NJ 101.5-FM) has sought to identify and address the issues that concern our listeners through our on-air talk show programs, our half-hourly newscasts, discussions with various governmental and community leaders and emails from the public sent to the station.

2. Some of the top issues included:

- Distracted driving in New Jersey
- Presidential election
- Pokemon Go
- Computer problems at the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission
- PARCC testing at New Jersey schools
- New Jersey's opiate addiction problem
- Gov. Chris Christie and the George Washington Bridge closures
- New Jersey Transit train crash at the Hoboken Train Station

3. WKXW (NJ 101.5-FM) continues to inform the New Jersey community and address their concerns on some of the issues included in this report through its talk show formats and half-hourly newscasts. We have used the station's talk show format as a sounding board for people in the state to voice their opinions on a wide ranging number of issues. In addition, our newscasts feature interviews with federal, state and local governmental leaders and community officials on issues that impact life in New Jersey .

4. We also aired monthly programs with New Jersey Gov. Chris Christie. Titled "Ask the Governor," the show gives New Jersey residents a chance to voice their concerns to Gov. Chris Christie on a monthly basis. During the 3rd quarter, "Ask the Governor" aired on September 29, 2016. Gov. Chris Christie did not do a show in July 2016 or August 2016. In addition, Lt. Gov. Kim Guadagno participates in an hourly program with WKXW (NJ101.5-FM) talk show host Bill Spadea called "Diggin' In with Kim Guadagno." During the show, Lt. Gov. Guadagno takes calls from the station's listeners on a variety of issues. During the 3rd quarter, Lt. Gov. Guadagno appeared seven times with Bill Spadea.
